Version 1.0.0, March 26, 2016

This is a reference copy of the terms of the JaCoP Contributor License Agreement. To actually complete and submit a CLA, please read the instructions at the end of this document.

Thank you for your interest in Java Constraint Programming solver project ("JaCoP") managed by Core-Dev team ("Core-Dev") currently consisting of Krzysztof Kuchcinski and Radoslaw Szymanek. In order for You (as defined below) to make intellectual property Contributions (as defined below) now or in the future to JaCoP, You must agree to this Contributor License Agreement ("CLA"). If You have any questions about this agreement, licensing, or anything related to intellectual property for JaCoP, please send an email to radoslaw.szymanek@osolpro.com.

Please read this CLA carefully before accepting its terms. By accepting the CLA, You are agreeing to be bound by its terms.

As used in this CLA: (i) "You" (or "Your") shall mean the entity that is making this Agreement with Core-Dev; (ii) "Contribution" shall mean any original work of authorship, including any modifications or additions to an existing work, that is submitted by You to Core-Dev for inclusion in, or documentation of, JaCoP project; and (iii) "Submit" (or "Submitted") means any form of verbal, written, or electronic communication sent to Core-Dev (e.g. the content You post on electronic mailing lists, forums, content management systems, source code control systems, code review systems, issue tracking systems, etc. that are used by Core-Dev).

This agreement applies to all Contributions You Submit.

Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to Core-Dev and to recipients of software distributed by Core-Dev a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare derivative works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute Your Contributions and such derivative works. You still own Your Contributions, and except for the licenses provided for in this CLA, You reserve all right, title and interest in Your Contributions and You can use Your own Contributions for any other purpose.

You are not expected to provide support for Your Contributions, except to the extent You desire to provide support. You may provide support for free, for a fee, or not at all. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, You provide Your Contributions on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON- INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Core-Dev requires that each Contribution You Submit now or in the future to comply with the following four commitments.

- You will only Submit Contributions where You have authored 100% of the content.
- You will only Submit Contributions to which You have the necessary rights. This means that if You are employed You have received the necessary permissions from Your employer to make the Contributions.
- Whatever content You Contribute will be provided under the present and future license(s) associated with JaCoP You are contributing to. You can see the present license(s), or find links to the license(s) in the notices and file headers.
- You understand and agree that Your contributions are public, and that a record of the contribution (including all personal information You submit with it, including Your sign-off) is maintained indefinitely and may be redistributed consistent with the license(s) involved.

You will promptly notify all members of the Core-Dev if You become aware of any facts or circumstances that would make these commitments inaccurate in any way.

If You think JaCoP could make use of content which You did not author, please talk to any Core-Dev member. If they like Your idea, they will know the process to get it included.

Core-Dev takes intellectual property very seriously, so we are going to ask You to re-confirm this CLA if Your Contribution is after three years of signing the last CLA.
